Services Required:

- Hiring responsible adults to enforce general safety rules (see below), and to look out for the best interests of all people attending the annual pow wow.

General Rules

1. Zero tolerance of alcohol, drugs, weapons, fighting, and other illegal activities deemed by law enforcement or the pow wow committee. Persons found in any of these activities will be asked to vacate the grounds, and possibly the community, immediately.
2. A pow wow and camping grounds curfew will be enforced by pow wow committee hired security personnel, beginning 30 minutes after the last song has ended for the day. Unattended children under 18 years of age will be asked to return to their families if camping or otherwise asked to leave the sites for everyone's safety.
3. Gang related activities, such as displaying gang colours in various forms and attire that promote a negative environment, and atmosphere will not be allowed at either pow wow or camping sites.
4. Inclement weather shelter will be located at the James Mason Memorial Recreation Centre

Successful applicants will be contacted via email and/or phone call.

SFN reserves the right to accept, reject, or cancel, in whole, in part, all applications.
